

Jane Howe of North Hampton, New Hampshire (left), displays her “Tribute to Women” award she received on May 14, 2009 from the YWCA of Greater Lawrence, Massachusetts. Veryl Anderson (right), nominated Jane to receive the recognition for her “exemplary contributions to both business and the community.” Jane has been a Registered Nurse for over 40 years and the Health and Therapies Coordinator at the Professional Center for Child Development for over 30 years. During the course of her career at the Center, Jane has administered nursing care to hundreds of children with special needs and assisted as many families in learning how to care for their medically fragile child.
